REGULATIONS ANNOUNCED FOR ALL PUBLIC EATING PLACES

Such Places Must Conform To New Rules Or Be Penalized

ARE TOLD WHAT TO SERVE

Local food administrator Darby is in receipt of the following regulations with reference to public eating houses which are defined as being hotels, resturants, boarding houses, clubs and all places where cooked food is sold to be consumed on the premises. These regulations were issued by the United States Food Administrator and now govern all such public eating places as noted above. It is stated that it has not been deemed advisable or necessary at the present time actually to license the operation of such public eating places but in case where the patriotic cooperaten of such places can not be secured by other means the United States Food Administrator will not hesitate to secure compliance with its orders, through the distribution of sugar, four and other food supplies. A failure to conform to any of the regulations will be regarded as a wasteful practice forbidden by Section Four of the Food Control Act of August, 1917.

The regulations are as follows:

WORK PROVED TO BE TOO HEAVY

Miss Freda McKinley of Belle Vernon, who recently answered a call to Philadelphia to assist in Red Cross nursing, returned home last week, because of illness from over exertion and the work proving too hard. Miss Hawkinson of Monessen who also left with the party was taken quite ill with influenza in Camden, N. J., and her father and mother were called to her bedside.

MUCKLE HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Charleroi Boy on Transport Which Was Sunk At Sea

MANY LOST IN THE ACCIDENT

Mrs. Margaret T. Muckle of 1105 McKean avenue, received a telegram Monday morning, from Adjutant General Harris, at Washington, D. C., informing her that her son, Harry S. Muckle a private in the Coast Artillery had been saved when the transport Otranto was sunk on the 6th of October.

Just a few days previously Mrs. Muckle had received a postal card signed by her son, but which had been mailed at an Atlantic port, stating that hehad arrived safely overseas. The news that he had been on the transport that had been sunk came as quite a shock to the family, but they were overjoyed to know that he had been saved.

The Otranto was a transport on the way to Europe carrying troops and supplies. On the 6th of October the vessel was sunk off the coast of Scotland in a collision with the steamer Kishmito. Three hundred and seventy-two soldiers are believed to have gone down with the ship but the exact number will not be known until the checking of the names of the survivors against the muster rolls of the units on board has been completed. The original muster rolls were lost with the ship and duplications had to be sent to England by the War Department. This accounts for the length of time required to establish the identity of the men lost.

The Otranto was sunk i na heavy sea and the men on board were compelled to save themselves by leaping from the decks of the sinking steamer to the British torpedo boat destroyers which ran alongside and at great danger to themselves "stood by" while the men jumped to their decks. It was a dangerous proceeding b ut the only way possible by which those who were saved were able to save themselves.

State Issues Warning Against Spanish "Flu"

The State Department of Health has sent several thousands of persons who last week issued a warning from Harrisburg with reference to the epidemic of Spanish influenza, which is causing so much trouble in this state. The department says that while the malady is on the wane, the danger is by no means over and that the slightest relaxation of vigilance in the care of thousands of convalescing patients may result in further spread of the disease and a greatly increased number of deaths.

It calls attention to the fact that there will soon be 50,000 convalescing patients in the state who will require constant watching and attention at the hands of some agency or organization. These patients, either from lack of funds or ignorance, will be unable to take care of themselves.

A great number of deaths during the present epidemic have been directly attributed to the fact that the patients left their beds too soon and thinking themselves cured, resumed their usual occupations. They also neglected to continue the proper medical treatment. Many relapses resulted and quite frequently terminated in death, while during the time the convalescent was on his feet he constituted a dangerous walking menace to the public and probably exposed many persons to the danger of contracting the disease.

The department says immediate steps should be taken to care for these patients, otherwise there will with their lives and exposing countless thousands of perfectly healthy people to the disease. Convalescent stations are recommended, and it is further stated that convalescing patients should be kept in bed for a period of from two to four days after fever subsides and all persons recovering from the disease and having a cough or bronchitis should remain on their own premises and away from others for a period of two weeks or if much prostrated remain in isolation for a longer period after definite signs of recovery are established.

ASKS PRIVILEGE TO SELL REAL ESTATE

In the estate of Edna Mae Roberts deceased a petition was presented to the Washington county court on Monday to sell real estate at private sale. This consists of a lot fronting on Lincoln in this borough. D. N. Hall has offered $3,500 for the same. A two-story dwelling of six rooms stands on the lot. The Charleroi Savings and Trust Co. is the guardian.

WONDERFUL ACHIEVEMENT OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

Almost Incredible Amount Of Work Has Been Accomplished

SPLENDID CO-OPERATION BY ALL

The War Council of the American Red Cross, under date of Washington, D. C., October 27th, 1918, authorizes the following:

The section made public today of the report which the Red Cross is making to the American people in weekly installments, deals with the assistance rendered to soldiers in the camps and cantonments in this country.

"This Red Cross activity, designated as military relief to distinguish it from the work done for the famlies of the soldiers by the home service branch of the organization, cost $2,110,686 up to the end of June, and calls for an appropriation of $3,475,000 for the remainder of the year.

"Most of the 1,750,000 men now overseas and the 1,000,000 in camps here have received knitted articles from the Red Cross. At the end of last July the organization had distributed 2,240,514 sweaters, 776,615 mufflers, 1,054,814 wristlets, 645,961 helmets, 2,143,921 pairs of socks and 419,822 comfort kits to soldiers in the United States and its territories. This is exclusive of the large quantities of similar articles distributed in the war zone. The women volunteer workers of the Red Cross produced these comforts which are intended to supplement the equipment provided by the army.

"The department of military relief of the Red Cross has established 700 canteens on the railway lines of the country and at embarkation points, 55,000 women workers volunteering their services for this work to the end that our fighting men may be refreshed when traveling. The communication service maintained by this department enables soldiers who are in the hospital, who are advised of the patient's condition by Red Cross workers assigned to this task. Sixty-three convalescent houses, provided with rooms for relatives who may want to visit soldier patients, have been built or are in course of construction at the country's training camps. Several children have been born in these homes while the mothers were visiting their sick husbands."

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

A number of volunteer nurses and orderlies are wanted for service at the emergency hospital, Eagle Building, McKean avenue. Any of those who will offer their services will be paid the same rate of wages by hospital institutions. Applications should be made at the emergency hospital at once.

HOSPITAL FOR EMERGENCIES

Eagles Home Taken Over By Local Authorities For That Purpose

IS NOW EQUIPPED AND READY

A joint meeting of the borough council, board of health, school board officers of the Red Cross and citizens was held at the borough building Monday evening, at which time general health conditions in the borough were discussed. After an expression of opinion from all sides had been heard it was decided to establish an emergency hospital at the Eagles Home of McKean avenue and equip it for the use of any patients that it might be deemed advisable to take there. The organization to look after this work was formed by the election of the following officers and committees:

General Committee—W. H. High, W. D. Pollock, R. J. Blythe, H. J Booth, Miss M. B. Richardson, Miss Lela O. Nutt, Kirby Miller, W. H. Henderson, C. A. Keller, S. L. Woodward, David Glunt.

This committee met at the Eagle Home this morning at which time the following sub-committees were appointed:

Finance—W. H. Henderson, R. J. Blythe, H. J. Booth, David Glunt

Nurses—S. L. Woodward, C. A. Keller, Miss Richardson

Equipment—W. D. Pollock, Kirby Miller, W. H. High.

Ambulance—S. L. Woodward, J. G. Albright, W. D. Pollock, W. H. High.

Medical Staff—All the physicians of Charleroi.

Matron—Mrs. Margaret Dunkerly.

Publicity—C. A. Keller

Already t he new hospital has been furnished with twenty cots, with additional equipment to be added as necessities may arise. The main auditorium has been fitted up as a ward, while the smaller rooms will be utilized for any purpose that may arise.

A diet kitchen has been instrilled and competent persons placed in charge, while a full supply of medical supplies have been secured and are now available. A request to the public school teachers to assist in hospital work resulted in fifteen of them volunteering their services and they will enter immediately upon their new duties.

SPANISH INFLUENZA A CONTACT DISEASE

An eminent Pittsburg physician and surgeon is authority for the statement that the best medical advice on the present Spanish influenza is to the effect that it is absolutely a contact disease, as typhoid. The person contracting it must get the germs from a conscious or unconscious carrier.

The hands and face should be washed frequently, nothing should be eaten in the fruit or vegetable line without wiping well. The disease is not communicable through the air, but by carrying and then contact.

SAFETY IN COAL SHIPMENTS

We live in an age of progress. safety and efficiency. At least we are making progress in that direction. although there is much yet to be done before we will attain to the position where we will be able to view our work with supreme satisfaction. Perfection cannot come to us. but we can 'hitch or wagon to a star." and at least keep going in that direction.

A sample of this progress, efficiency and economy can be seen at any time these days if we care to take the trouble and either stand on the banks of the Monongahela or visit the locks and witness the passing of thousands yes millions of bushels of coal which are handled daily with the regularity of clock work.

By improved methods both in transportation and locking facilities. with all iron and steel barges. powerfully constructed steamers handled by competent and skilled boatmen, the loss of a single bushel of coal during the past year would have been an incident worthy of mention so perfect is the manner of transporting the immense output of the mines along this great valley.

What of the past, say twenty years ago, when in 1898 there were lost between Pittsburg and New Orleans 49 barges of coal containing 724,000 bushels of coal and 67 coal boats of the old wooden type containing 2.000,000 bushels, all sunk and but little if any of it recovered. A loss of this size today would be a disaster of no small proportions.

Not only has the manner and safety in shipping coal attained great progress, but it bids fair to be muuch greater in the near future. with the introduction of newer and more improved methods of handling coal and the construction of steamers on modern lines, and the introduction of tar and oil burning devices for generating steam. The coming years have much in store for the Monongahela valley.

WHAT AN ARMY OF SAVERS

These Liberty Loans are destined inevitably to put a lot of pep into the American spirit of thrift. Already the effect is noticeable.

Time was. not so very long ago. when America stood at the bottom of the world class of frugality. For Americans were wasters.

Every country of Europe showed a higher percentage of savings accounts per capita than the United States. Yet America was richest of them all.

But the people who produced the wealth profited the least. They were profligate, extravagant. careless of the future.

It took the Liberty Loans to show them just how easy it is to save where one has the will to do it.

The first loan registered some 4,-500,000 subscribers. the second about 9.500.000 and the third some 18,000.-000.

Now along comes the Fourth with approximately 25 000.000.

Probably this means that there are in excess of 30,000,000 holders of Liberty Bonds in the United States today.

Some grand little old army of savers.

And some grand little old investment they have made.

Now if in the end the Kaiser and his six unwounded sons can only be made a series of exhibit as for the benefit of future would-be world monarchs we will feel that after all war has its compensations.

Germany wants an armistice. Well, Marshal Foch and theallied commanders are content to give it to them.

BEWARE OF THE HUN

Germany has sent a reply to the last note of President Wilson. It says the President is aware of the far-reaching changes which have been carried out and are being carried out in the German administration, and that these reforms [illegible] Government [illegible] but [illegible] the people to make the [illegible] choices.

However, there is no [illegible] of the Government [illegible] urged the [illegible] men who are represented [illegible] any of this exchange of notes [illegible] primarily responsive to the [illegible] the military junkers who have been in supreme control of the German government for years.

President Wilson himself has said that the Kaiser and other members of his government are not to be trusted, yet here we have Self coming back and saying that "peace negotiations are being conducted by a people's government."

There should be no peace negotiations in which German representatives take part. Their duty should be pointed out to them in very brief words: "Sign here." So far as the terms are concerned they should be dictated by the allies and Germany's part be confined to saying. "Yes. sir. It should be an unconditional surrender on the part of the Hun—we will tell what the terms will be.

It is not likely that politics will "be adjourned" during the present administration. The Republicans were willing to allow affairs to go along without partisan bias, but the Democrats. believing the war an asset of the Democratic party. thought they saw a change to "cinch" things for years to come. Possibly they are mistaken.

Regardless of the attitude of Germany with reference to peace, and its alleged desirefor an armistice. we do not want to let up on any of our war activities. We can end the war all the sooner by keeping everything going at full speed in order not to be caught napping by any emergency.

Reports from the eastern part of the state indicate that the present health quarantine now placed on so many enterprises may belifted within another week. This depends largely on local conditions in many communities.

Ludenorff is reported as having resigned his big position in the German army. Possibly he did not like to have the honor (?) of surrendering the German armies.

CARTONS HERE FOR SOLDIERS' PRESENTS

A limited number of cartons, to be used for sending Christmas parcels to soldiers overseas, has been received at the local Red Cross headquarters. These will be issued only to the relatives and friends of men in the service upon application to Miss Minnie Richardson, and upon presentation of the regular label. These labels will be sent from abroad by the soldiers themselves and are expected to reach here about the end of this wek. Those who anticipate sending parcels abroad should read carefully the instructions published in the Mail of Monday, Wednesday and Friday of last week, and thereby obviate unnecessary worry and confusion.

MANY NEW CASES ARE REPORTED

Fifty homes were reported to the health board this morning in which Influenza cases have developed on Sunday and Monday. In a number of these homes more than one case has developed. this being particularly true on Shady avenue. At 922 Shady there are eight cases; at 1006 Meadow there are four while a number of other homes are similarly afflicted. Just how many cases all told there are in the borough it is somewhat difficult to state at this time. but it is evident they will reach considerably over one hundred Two deaths are reported for the past twenty-four hours. So many cases being reported in such a short time shows that the malady is not decreasing in Charleroi.

Yanks Decline Hun 'Double Cross'

Double-crossing trickery which the Hun tried to work on the new Yank fighters failed miserably, as this new photo from the front north of the Soissons sector shows. Any false move on the part of the war prisoners, and they would pay dearly to these two determined Yanks.

BUT LITTLE HOPE FOR EARLY PEACE

In speaking of the [illegible] German note President Wilson with reference to peace terms Dr. Henry W. Temperley now at his home in Washington for a short time said. "There is nothing in the present situation that would justify any relaxation of our energies or any failure to proceed with our military preparation." He does not believe that events of the past few days presage a cessation of hostilities within the near future.

"We cannot safely indulge any strong hope of an early peace. The latest note of the German Chancellor to President Wilson calls attention to the well known fact that representatives of the people in the German empire have not heretofore been endowed with an influence on the formation of the government. The note says: 'These conditions have first now undergone a fundamental change. The new government has been formed in complete accord with the wishes of the representatives of the people. based on the equal universal secret direct franchise."

"This statement should deceive nobody There has been no change [illegible] in the electoral franchise in Germany. The first sentence of Article 30 of the constitution of the empire which has been in force since 1871 reads as follows: 'The members of the diet shall be elected by universal suffrage and by direct secret ballot.'

"Stripped down to the bare truth the statement of the note amounts only to this—that in selecting a new chancellor and other members of the cabinet the emperor has chosen men acceptable to a majority of the members of the reichstag. That is all.

"As to the future responsibility of the chancellor to the reichstag it will require a constitutional amendment to provide for that and we should not forget that Article 78 of the constitution provides that 14 votes in the bundesrat can defeat any amendment. Prussia has 17 votes in that body and the votes are all cast in accordance with the instructions of the King of Prussia. The emperor is King of Prussia. The new government therefore is likely the old. completely under thecontrol of the Kaiser.

"The President has of course taken no action on Germany's request for an armistice except to refer that request to the Allied governments with the suggestion that they ask their military advisers what terms of an armistice would be accepted. provided any armistice is possible from a military point of view."

DANGER AFTER SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIPPE

How it Can Be Avoided and Treated. Simple Rules to Be Followed. No Occasion for Panic

No need of anyone being afraid of the after effects and slow recovery from Spanish Influenza, hard colds or Grippe, if they will use common sense and start in building up their health and strength the right way.

The main thing is to get the blood rich, red, and pure, so it can carry life-giving oxygen and strength to every part of the body. Impure blood is the cause of so many slow recoveries and set-backs.

Doctors say: "Get the blood right and the rest is easy. that nine-tenths of all sickness is due to lack of iron and phosphates: the healthy strong, vigorous man or woman's blood is always loaded with these two life-giving elements".

Physicians also claim with fresh air and nourishing food nothing equals Phosphated Iron as a blood tonic and health builder. Phosphated Iron takes hold from the first dose. Results are seen and felt; strength returns, food digests, appetite picks up, sleep is restful, there is a color in the cheeks and a sparkle to the eye that only blood charged with iron and phosphates can give.

It is the duty of everyone who has had Spanish Influenza, Grippe or a hard cold to build up their system with nature's tonic, Phosphated Iron. It sure is health protection. Safety first. The results will repay you many times. Give yourself a show. Special notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put in capsules. Do not take pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

TIME FIXED FOR HOLDING COURT

A change has been made in the time of the setting of criminal and common pleas court from that announced on Friday. As was stated the November terms of these courts have been continued for a month.

Under the former order just handed down by the court, the petit jury for criminal court will be summoned [illegible] as the grand jury. The grand jury will meet the first Monday in December and sit all that week. The petit jury will be called for Tuesday of that week and as rapidly as true bills are returned during the week by the grand jury they will be heard of and disposed of in criminal court.

Criminal court for the trial of cases, will sit for two weeks beginning Tuesday, December 3. Not for several years has court sat for trial of cases during the same week as the grand jury met. The custom has been to have the grand jury present a week before the trial of cases was taken up.

Common pleas court will convene on Monday, December 16, at 1 o'clock and be in session that week. It will then adjourn over the holidays until Monday, January 6, at 1 o'clock, when it will sit for three weeks. The jurors drawn last Saturday will be summoned for the week of December 6 and the week of January 6. A new panel has been ordered drawn for the two weeks beginning Monday, January 13.

All to Do Over Again.

Alex started to go upstairs to bed, but, being rather tired from too strenuous play during the day, he made his way somewhat slowly and finally stumbled and went rolling to the bottom of the steps. Fortunately he was unhurt, but was a little bewildered when they picked him up. As soon as his mind was in working order again he exclaimed, somewhat regretfully: "Oh, pshaw! Now I'll have to climb those old stairs all over again!"

Fine Canal Locks.

Some of the locks of the New York barge canal are the finest in the world the five at Waterford being the greatest series of high lift locks in existence. They have a combined lift of 169 feet, one foot less than the total lift of every lock in the Panama canal. The upper gates weigh 40 tons and the lower about 100 tons.

Useful Insects.

In addition to the insects which help man by their warfare against his enemies and those that are useful to him in medicine, there are many others that serve useful purposes in a [illegible] way. Most familiar of these are the honey and wax obtained from the bee. There is a Chinese bug which secretes a kind of grease on trees. This gardens also wax and is collected, melted and purified when it becomes white and glossy in appearance, and when used with other fats can be made into candles.—Chicago Herald and Examiner.

How Beavers Fell Trees.

A naturalist who has given particular attention to the habits of beavers, says that those creatures have an ingenious method of carving the trees on which they wish to fell. Instead of attempting to cut right through, they make two cuts, one above the other, and then dig out pieces between the cuts. The result of their operations is a V-shaped notch resembling that made by a woodsman with an ax.

Spanish Avaram.

The Madras government plans to encourage the systematic cultivation of avaram, the bark of which is said to be the best tanning agent for the production of soft and good leather by unskilled labor. Avaram grows only in southern India, and it is because the tanners of this region have available supplies of this excellent tanning material that South India hides have gained their present high position.

Lose Hair Suddenly.

In the western parts of New South Wales men are often denuded of all their hair. A man will go to bed apparently nothing wrong with him and wake up in the morning to find that every hair on his body has fallen out during the night. This disease has never been known to attack a woman. Once the hair falls out in this fashion nothing yet invented will make a new crop grow.

Slick Confidence Men.

"Some of them Kay See confidence men are pretty slick, ain't they, Lester?" asked old Riley Rezzidew. "Yes, siree!" replied Lester Lazzenberry, who was just back from the Big Burg. "They're so durn slick they'd pick the pockets of a billiard table if you didn't watch 'em every minute."—Kansas City Star.

Faulty Judgment.

"Miss Jones," sternly inquired the superintendent "what has happened here? Five of your boys have black eyes and bruised faces." "The worst battered and most cheerful one is the new boy," answered the sixth-grade teacher. "The others thought he was for peace at any price. But he wasn't."

Queer Physiology.

Mr. Chatterton—"My idea of a beautiful woman is one with a divine figure, a graceful carriage, a clear complexion, a laughing mouth, good teeth, a straight nose and, above all, dark, expressive eyes." Miss Giggles—"Eyes above all! Tee-hee! She'd look funny with eyes on the top of her head."

No Need to Worry.

Mrs. Livewell—"Please don't be offended at the question, Tillie, but are you addicted to drink?" New Maid—"I don't know the taste of it, ma'am. You can keep a bottle in every room in the house if you like and you'll always find it as you left it."—Buffalo Express.

Extraordinary Optimist.

An inmate of a Canadian charity home laughed himself to death over a joke. A man who can laugh himself to death in the poorhouse is a peculiar sort of an optimist that this world hasn't enough of.

Home-Made Plaster.

Holes in plaster walls may be stopped with a mixture of sand and plaster of paris mixed into a paste with water. When dry cover with a piece of paper to match the wall.

Economy.

Waiter (to persevering Scot)—"You seem to have a difficulty of getting all that soup up with your spoon, sir! Shall I bring you a bit of blotting paper?—Answers London.

One of Humanity's Failings.

"Somehow," said Uncle Eben, "de fellah who is always ready to offer advice always seems to be mighty independent when it comes to takin' some of his own medicine."

Speaking of Trees.

Said the rural philosopher: "A fellah can't tell much about a man's character by the kind of pine tree he sets out in his yard, but you can generally tell what kind of beau he is."

WORSE THAN GAS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. It attacks young and old alike. In most cases the victim is warned of the approaching danger. Nature rights back. Headache, indigestion, disordered urine back, lumbago or pain, rheumatism, pain in the loins and lower abdomen, a tendency in attacking all are indications of trouble in the kidneys.

When such symptoms appear you will almost certainly find relief in Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules.

This famous old remedy has stood the test for two hundred years in helping mankind to fight off disease. It is imported direct from the home laboratories in Holland and may be had at almost every drug store. Your money promptly refunded if it does not relieve you. Be sure to get the genuine Gold Medal Brand. In sealed packages, three sizes.

A PLAIN TRUTH

A man may patronize the mail order houses for years, may send them in that time hundreds of dollars, and at the same time they would not accommodate him for a two-cent stamp. This is the plain, unvarnished truth. If you think otherwise try it for yourself and see. These out-of town houses do not know you -- do not care to know you -- are not interested in you in any way--only in the money you send them. Spend your money with your own townsmen who know you for what you really are, who appreciate your worth, your business, your assistance in building up home interests.
